The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

'Nobody to Watch ...'

It was in the Jan. 14 issue of PARADE in which the philosophy of David Brinkley regarding the press and Brinkley's remarks brought the free press vs. government into focus, regardless of Spiro T. Agnew's utterances.

Said Brinkley, in Los Angeles for a USC award for journalistic excellence.

"There are numerous countries in the world where politicians have seized absolute power and muzzled the press.

"There is no country in the world where the press has seized absolute power and muzzled the politicians.

"If over the last generation, the politicians and bureaucrats in Washington have made such a mess of things with the press keeping some kind of watch over them, what would they have done with nobody watching?

"And without the press, there is nobody. Nobody to watch over them. Nobody at all ..."

Politics of the Crime Scene

Bill Farr, the Los Angeles Times newsman, who has been reposing in the Los Angeles County jail for a month in San Diego last week to rap with local newsmen.

He is out of jail, temporarily, pending the outcome of his request for appeal, so his freedom may be of short duration.

His crime is not that he lied, misled, refused to testify, or otherwise disturbed the conduct of court procedure. The "crime" was that he declined to name the attorney who supplied him with a transcript—material that was already in the hands of the judge and a dozen or more other court functionaries including several attorneys working on the case.

It is generally known that a reporter's professional integrity is on the line when his sense of confidentiality is questioned. His sources dry up when he reveals who these sources are. Which means that government, at all levels, if it wants to operate in secrecy would force tipsters to remain quiet by threat of having their identities revealed.

This would stop many sincere and honest government people who abhor wrongdoing but cannot afford to put their livelihood on the line. In organized crime, the tipster puts his life on the line.

Such a threat would seriously diminish the public's right to know how their business is being conducted.

It is depressing that now the judiciary has apparently joined with other arms of government to reduce reportorial confidentiality to the point where tips on governmental wrongdoings will grow fewer and fewer. And in the process citizens are led down the unhappy path of ignorance.

It is interesting to compare government's determination in the Farr case with the lack of determination in the handling of hardened criminals.

Let it be stated that Farr has committed no crime. Yet, he was ordered to full security jail. Now compare that with hardened criminals who are often sentenced to minimum security facilities. This column's informant (in case the judge wants to know) is a lawmaker who he should know — State Senator H. L. Richardson of Arcadia, who has voiced his opinion in this column previously.

Sen. Richardson is critical of the Department of Corrections and its director Ray Procunier. He should criticize. There have been 1,518 escapes from state prison facilities during a recent 21 month period.

Escapes include many inmates who should be considered dangerous. It also includes those who walk away from or break out of minimum security facilities, often on 72 hour work furloughs and never return.

The calibre of prisoner who escapes is indicated by Cesario Flores who walked out of the California Men's Colony at San Luis Obispo on October 13. As far as it is known, he is still at large.

The reputation of Flores goes back to 1943 and includes assault with a deadly weapon, burglary, kidnapping for ransom, robbery, sodomy, and sexual perversion charges. He has been adjudicated criminally insane and was sentenced to life without possibility of parole.

Yet he was assigned by the Department of Corrections to a minimum security prison from which he walked away, a potential murder threat to whomever he comes in contact.

Another criminal, Roger Mealman, alias Roger Green, with a career in crime extending back to 1944, has a record of federal narcotics charge, burglary, robbery including a $40,000 bank robbery which resulted in the death of a CHP patrolman pursuing Mealman. He was sentenced to life imprisonment and wound up at a minimum security ranch. He escaped with a fellow convict, a three-time loser serving a 15-year sentence for voluntary manslaughter. Luckily, Mealman was recaptured. But what about the 1,515 other escapees? Some were recaptured. Others are still loose. A celebrated escapee, Timothy Leary, was just returned to California this week after 2 years on the loose. He walked out of a minimum security facility after being jailed on drug charges.

The point has been made. The court in which Bill Farr was tried and sentenced, is utilizing its awesome powers to get Farr back in jail until he recants and gives the court the name of the attorney who provided him with information. And he got no 72 hour work furloughs.

On the other hand little care is seemed to be expressed regarding convicted criminals—criminals who could do bodily harm to you and your family.

On the basis of these presentments, it appears that it makes little difference if you are criminally injured. But it does make a difference if you get to know what's going on.

Manslaughter Sentence Set For Feb. 13 for S.V. Woman

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A charged with felony drunk 34-year-old Spring Valley driving and the manslaughter woman pleaded "no contest" count. Upon her no contest Monday in Superior Court to plea, the drunk driving charge felony vehicular manslaughter was dismissed. So was a mister, as the result of an acci-demeanor drunk driving dent last August on Campo charge then pending.

Sups Raise Own Pay to $22,000

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A challenge to a pay raise for the members of the board of supervisors died Friday.

People who were circulating petitions made an appearance at the close of county business on Friday with only a small percentage of the 42,000 required total.

Porter Cremens, clerk of the board, accepted the petitions but said there was nothing close to the required number.

The circulators said they had many more signatures but had been unable to assemble them in time for presentation.

The board, which is now required by the state constitution to set its own salary, raised this level from $16,000 to $22,000, approximately the salaries of the legislature of the state.

Lost Teen Hiker Found

A Spring Valley teenager who apparently lost his way while hiking on Palomar Mountain was found by a Sheriff's Department search party about seven hours after he was reported missing.

Deputies reported that the youth, 18-year old Gene Fitz, of 8814 Jaylee ave., Spring Valley, walked several miles before he was found near Valley Center Sunday night.

The youth, and eight other members of a hiking group, had planned the hike for many weeks.

Fitz went ahead of the others, but failed to meet the group at a rendezvous point at 3 p.m., as planned.

He suffered no ill effects, although the night air in the mountains was cold.

Motorcycle Theft Charged

Deputies patrolling an area in Spring Valley which had been the scene of a motorcycle theft uncovered an alleged theft of a different motorcycle, and took two persons into custody.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, deputies saw two persons loading a motorcycle engine into a pickup truck in the 9100 block of Rosedale dr. in Spring Valley.

Since the theft of a motorcycle had been reported earlier in the area, deputies investigated and learned that the suspects had dismantled a motorcycle and planned to sell the parts at the swap meet.

A check of the engine number revealed no reports indicating it was stolen, but the number of the frame from which the engine apparently came was listed as stolen in San Diego.

Taken into custody at that time was Todd T. Hughes, 18, of 441 Parkbrook st., Spring Valley, and a 17-year old juvenile.

Meter System Seen For Route 94 Ramps

The California Highway Commission has allocated funds for seven reconstruction and improvement projects on state routes in San Diego County.

Upon recommendation of Vice Chairman Joseph F. Sinnott of San Diego, a total of $512,000 was allotted for the seven jobs, which will eliminate excessive maintenance costs and improve traffic flow.

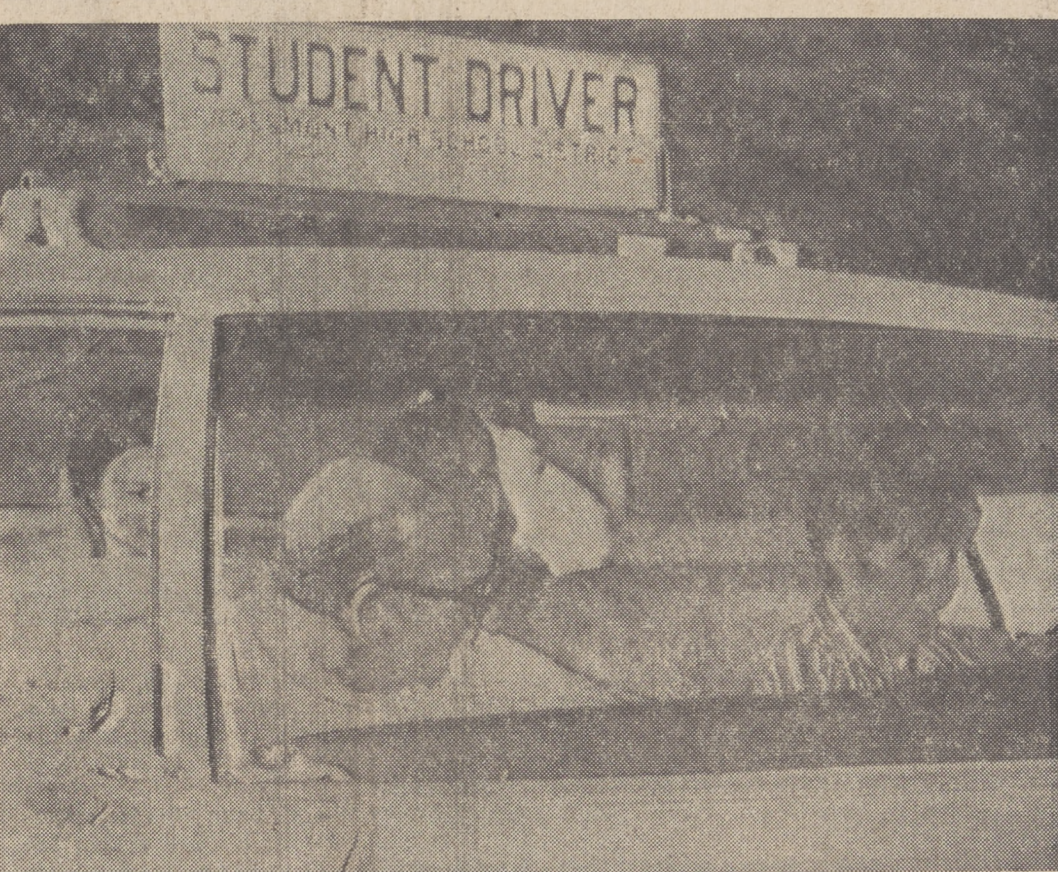

Included in the proposed roadwork was that on Highway 94.

A ramp-metering system is proposed for 22 westbound on-ramps of Route 94 and a portion of Route 125.

The two routes provide a major freeway route into San Diego's business district from the large residential areas of TELL TALE SIGN — When area drivers approach a car seemingly traveling too slow on the freeway, a closer look may reveal the sign atop the car which indicates that the machine is part of a fleet in which high school students learn to drive. Cars are donated by local auto dealers for the program.

'Like Entering Whole New World'

Learning To Drive Is Frightening But Exciting

Most people who have been driving for several years have probably forgotten what it was like to learn to drive.

The modern way to learn to drive is probably a lot easier, but there are more cars on the road today than ever before, so it seems a little scary as the high school driver education student climbs in behind the wheel for the first time.

Helix High School student Joe Ann Brown related her experiences in driver education, which, she said was like entering a whole new world that she knew nothing about.

"For the first time in your life," she explained, "you have control over something other than your little brother. You find that you have the power to go where you want by making that car do what you want. At least that's what you are thinking as you enroll in the class."

"But that is usually before the youngster begins his own showdown with the car," Miss Brown added.

"First you learn to start the car and what each of the GIGGLES — Sometimes when the driver of a driver education car tries to start the engine before taking off, the attempt is met with giggles from the back seat, where other student drivers await their turn at the wheel. The giggles often turn to fright when the car actually begins to move. The fright is actually unwarranted, however, as the accident rate for the fleet compares favorably with that of the general public.

The Board of Education in and 80 teachers showed very the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District received more positive feelings toward year-round school, according to a report made to the Board of Education last June. The attitude survey, conducted by a citizens advisory council, with the assistance of the California Teachers Association Bureau of Research, asked 22 questions of students, parents, and teachers after they had been involved in the 45/15 year-round schooling for nearly a year. Results were very favorable and 84% of those responding said the program should be expanded on an optional basis. Nearly all of the teachers wanted to continue teaching on a year-round schedule.

Superintendent James R. Runge reported on studies being used to measure student growth in the district's four year-round schools. Children go to school for 45 class days and then have a vacation of 15 days and, by alternating attendance schedules, the school building is kept open all year to house more children without reducing the education for the students. The plan is commonly known as the 45/15 year-round program.

Preliminary results from three of the ongoing studies show that year-round students do as well as their counterparts in 9-month schools in reading, math, and language. The first study, using the Wide Range Achievement Test, showed the amount of growth in reading and arithmetic slightly favoring the year-round students, while in spelling the 9-month students did better.

Two other studies, using standardized achievement tests, revealed year-round students made greater growth in reading and language but a little less in mathematics than when the same students were on the 9-month school year. Dr. Martin Gerstein, director of pupil personnel services, cautioned, however, that none of the score differences are yet great enough to be significant. Several years of examination will be necessary to determine the achievement differences between year-round and 9-month students.

A fourth study is currently under way in the district which involves cooperation with Harcourt-Brace-Jovanovich in New York City, publishers of the Stanford Achievement Test. Results of the study will not be known until next October or November.

Two Charged With Burglary

Two out-of-town men were arrested in Spring Valley last week and charged with burglary and automobile theft after Sheriff's deputies stopped their vehicle on a traffic violation.

Taken into custody were Harley Bass, 42, and Kenneth G. Gannuso, 44. They were arrested at about 4 a.m. last Thursday morning.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, deputies on routine patrol stopped the car at Sweetwater and Blossom lane in Spring Valley after a traffic violation.

Upon contact with the driver of the vehicle, deputies noticed several bottles of whiskey in the rear of the car, as well as blank payroll checks, signed checks, and check making machines.

The two suspects were then arrested and charged with burglary. A further check of the vehicle netted a multi-band radio, a transistor radio, and other miscellaneous items.

A routine check to determine if the car was stolen indicated different owners for the car and its license plates. The plates were registered to Gannuso but the car was not.

A check of the business name on the payroll checks revealed that it apparently had been burglarized not long before the arrests.

School Board Gives Nod To New Warehouse

The Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees met Tuesday night and accepted the district's new warehouse building, located adjacent to the education center.

The new structure, despite delays due to poor weather, was completed last week, with only interior construction to be performed. Under terms of the contract, the interior would be finished by district maintenance personnel.

Trustees recessed from the meeting to inspect the facility, where they were treated to cake and coffee.

The metal structure, designed to replace storage areas at Lemon Grove Junior High, carried a price tag of about $22,000.

In other action, trustees slated an executive session at the February 27 meeting to consider staff evaluations of the superintendent, and approved pupil participation in three projects: the Masonic Poster Contest, and the "walks" for Mankind and Hunger.

Superintendent Robert Sutton announced that registrar of voters Charles Sexton had issued a memorandum regarding a school board election.

Sutton told trustees that candidates must file with the registrar no later than February 16. Qualifications include being a resident of the school district, registered to vote, and not disqualified by other requirements of the California Constitution.

Leonard Klee, president of the board, announced earlier that he would seek re-election. Also up for re-election are Warren Buckner and Bert Cosby, but neither has announced his intentions.

The election will be in April.

Crash Kills SV Man

A Spring Valley man was killed in a car crash early Sunday morning on Sweetwater rd. south of Quarry rd. in Bonita.

Reports from the California Highway Patrol indicated that Vern C. Filley, 39, of 739 Brucker ave., Spring Valley, apparently failed to negotiate a curve and overturned his vehicle.

The victim was ejected from his vehicle and was pronounced dead at the scene.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Dar la mano" means "to shake hands." However, "dar" literally means "to give" and "la mano" is "the hand." This expression could be translated "to give the hand." As you can see, the idea of "giving one's hand" in one language can be converted to "shaking hands" in another language.

"Doy la mano" is a variation which means "I shake hands." This can be used in expressions like "Doy la mano a todos mis amigos." (I shake hands with all my friends.) and "A veces doy la mano a mi jefe." (Sometimes I shake hands with my boss.). "Cambiarde manos" is an expression which means "to change hands." We may use this in complete sentences like "Este negocio va a cambiar de manos muy pronto." (This business is going to change hands soon.) and "No es posible de cambiar manos ahora." (It is not possible to change hands now.).

"A mano" is the way to say "by hand." Thus we may hear vendors praise their wares by saying "Esta cartera se hizo a mano." (This purse was made by hand.) or "Todo el trabajo se puede hacer a mano." (All of the work can be done by hand.).

"Mano a mano" is a favorite expression in bull fighting circles where the competition is between two equally daring matadors, each on a par with the other, as might be described "hand to hand", or saying "they are equal." As they perform they attempt to "get the upper-hand" or out do their opponent.

Several practice phrases that relate to the use of "mano" are listed below for your learning pleasure. A phonetic guide is provided with each phrase. You may also practice them with the aid of the record heard on 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Doy la mano a mis amigos." (DOH-lah MAH-noh ah mees ah-MEE-gohs) for "I shake hands with my friends."

Say "Favor de dar la mano." (fah-VOHR deh DAHR lah MAH-noh) for "Please shake hands."

Say "Se hizo a mano." (seh EES-soh ah MAH-noh) for "It was made by hand."

Say "El negocio va a cambiar de mano." (ehl neh-GOH-see-oh vah ah kahm-bee-AHR deh MAH-noh) for "The business is going to change hands."

Say "Pelean mano a mano." (peh-LEH-an MAH-noh ah MAH-noh) for "They fight equally well."

Say "Ella da la mano." (EH-yah dah lah MAH-noh) for "She shakes hands."

Volunteers Sought For Mothers March

Women in San Diego and Imperial Counties will be marching against birth defects on January 31 and the March of Dimes is enlisting forces of volunteers for the fund drive.

"The more volunteers who join us the greater our contribution to medical research and treatment," said Mrs. Percy M. Goodwin, co-Mothers March chairman. Sharing the chairmanship is Mrs. Robert Adelizzi.

Mrs. Goodwin said that many duties are involved in getting the March of Dimes' appeal on the road. Volunteers are needed beforehand to assemble kit, plan routes, spread the call for more marchers and handle telephone inquiries about the campaign.

"Men are welcome, too," Mrs. Goodwin said. "We even have badges ready for them proclaiming, 'Tonight I am a Mother!'"

RETIREMENT—Lemon Grove resident Walter F. McCollum of 7915 Lincoln st., Lemon Grove is scheduled to retire in a late March ceremony ending a 34-year Federal service career. He presently heads the 900-man Maintenance Dept., with the Naval Station-headquartered San Diego Navy Public Works Center.

His has been a career with a wide-ranging background. From the 1930s that experience started as a salesman. He left the Navy at the end of World War II as a Chief Electrician's Mate. Immediately setting his sights on Federal service, his has been a constant march up the advancement chain. It has included electrician helper to electrician, leadingman, shop planner, foreman and up. He retires in March as a senior Maintenance Superintendent. Along the way there's been time for education. McCollum earned his Bachelor of Science from San Diego State University. In addition, he's attended San Diego City College and the University of California at Berkeley.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

All area season ticket holders should not take the Charger exhibition game seats as a protest to the current Svare-Schnookler sabotage of our team. The trades, game plans, and personality clashes of the 1972 season belong in junior high school—not the N.F.L. The most consistent, durable, dependable, honorable, and finest example to our youth—is John Hadl. To cast aside the Chargers' best tool to satisfy a loser's whimsical theories of offense is insane, and an insult to the S.D. fans. Hadl is great.

Dear Editor:

The United Nations has failed miserably to halt terrorists around the world. It has failed to take action against Uganda where about 50,000 Asians are being deported. It has failed to take action against Russia and China for denying Human Rights and Civil Rights to their enslaved populations. It is a flop.

But don't think for a minute that the United Nations is idle. Through the United Nations Association, its propaganda arm, it is promoting a plan to enlarge its Development Fund for a total of $11,973,000 in five years. This Fund is being developed: "Quietly, with little fanfare . . ."

These tremendous funds are to be used to . . . redirect our national priorities," to " . . . stimulate citizen action" and to " . . . activate cooperative programs commanding the attention of policy makers." Briefly, this is to furnish propaganda support for the ailing and ineffective United Nations.

Do you want to be "redirected" and "stimulated" so the U. S. will continue pouring more billions down this rate hole thus increasing our taxes?

C. C. Moseley,

Grant Given For Study Of Anesthetics

With the increased use of inhalational anesthetic agents as research tools in the past decade, and their obvious clinical role of reducing pain in human and veterinary patients, further investigation of the relationship of these agents to the heart and lungs is required and local Christmas Seal dollars are helping to make such a study possible, according to Ken Moser, president of the Lung Association of San Diego and Imperial Counties.

To aid in this medical probe, the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association of California has awarded a research grant of $2,040 to Eugene P. Steffey, VMD, Graduate Student in the Department of Physiological Sciences, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California-Davis.

Moser, Chief of the Pulmonary Division of University Hospital of San Diego, in announcing the award, reminded the public that 19 research and medical education grants totaling $172,239 were awarded this year by the TB and RD association.

Monies supporting the grants were made possible by community backing of the annual Christmas Seal Campaign.

Hall, a father of four, has served as a Pack Committee member, a Committee Chairman, an Assistant Scoutmaster, a Roundtable Commissioner, a Camporee Committee member, and a Fair Committee member.

Active in such organizations as the Kiwanis Club, the San Diego Sound Contractors Association, the National Electrical Contractors Association, and the PTA, Hall also devotes much of his time to work with handicapped youngsters and local students.

Catherine Yeager, a Den Leader Coach for Pack 399 of Lemon Grove, is a mother of six and has been active in PTA and her church.

Involved in scouting since 1954, she has participated in scouting's sustaining membership drive and has been active in leadership training, counseling and finance operations for the local district.

Krulak, USMC (Ret.), Dr. Robert Mayo, and John W. Thiele, vice presidents; Julius J. Fink, chairman of the board; Fred S. Hage, treasurer; and James Osborne, commissioner. John W. Ackermann is scout executive and Gene Murphy is deputy scout executive for the council.

He paid tribute to volunteer leaders who, through their direction and dedication, provide a quality program of character building, citizenship training, and personal fitness.

The Boy Scouts of America will celebrate their 63rd anniversary February 8 and the entire month has been designated as Anniversary Month, B.S.A.

Survivors include a daughter, Ella E. Dawson, of San Diego; a sister, Ethel Reese, of New York; six grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren.

Mt. Miguel In Lopsided Hoop Games

A pair of lopsided contests greeted Mt. Miguel High School's basketball team, once in favor of the Matadors, and once in favor of the opposition last week.

On Tuesday, the local team, which was tied for third place with Monte Vista after the week's action, was the victim to unbeaten loop favorite Helix, 80-63.

Both teams were hot at the hoop as the contest opened, but Helix was a bit hotter, taking a two-point lead into the second quarter. Mt. Miguel fell off in the second stanza, giving Helix an eight-point spread at halftime.

The Highlanders continued the bucket brigade in the third quarter to take a 13-point edge as the fourth quarter got underway.

In the last stanza, the Matadors looked as though they would make a run at the visiting Scotties and closed the gap to seven points with just over five minutes remaining in the contest.

Helix, however, squelched the rally in the waning minutes by outscoring the host team 12-2 to ice the victory.

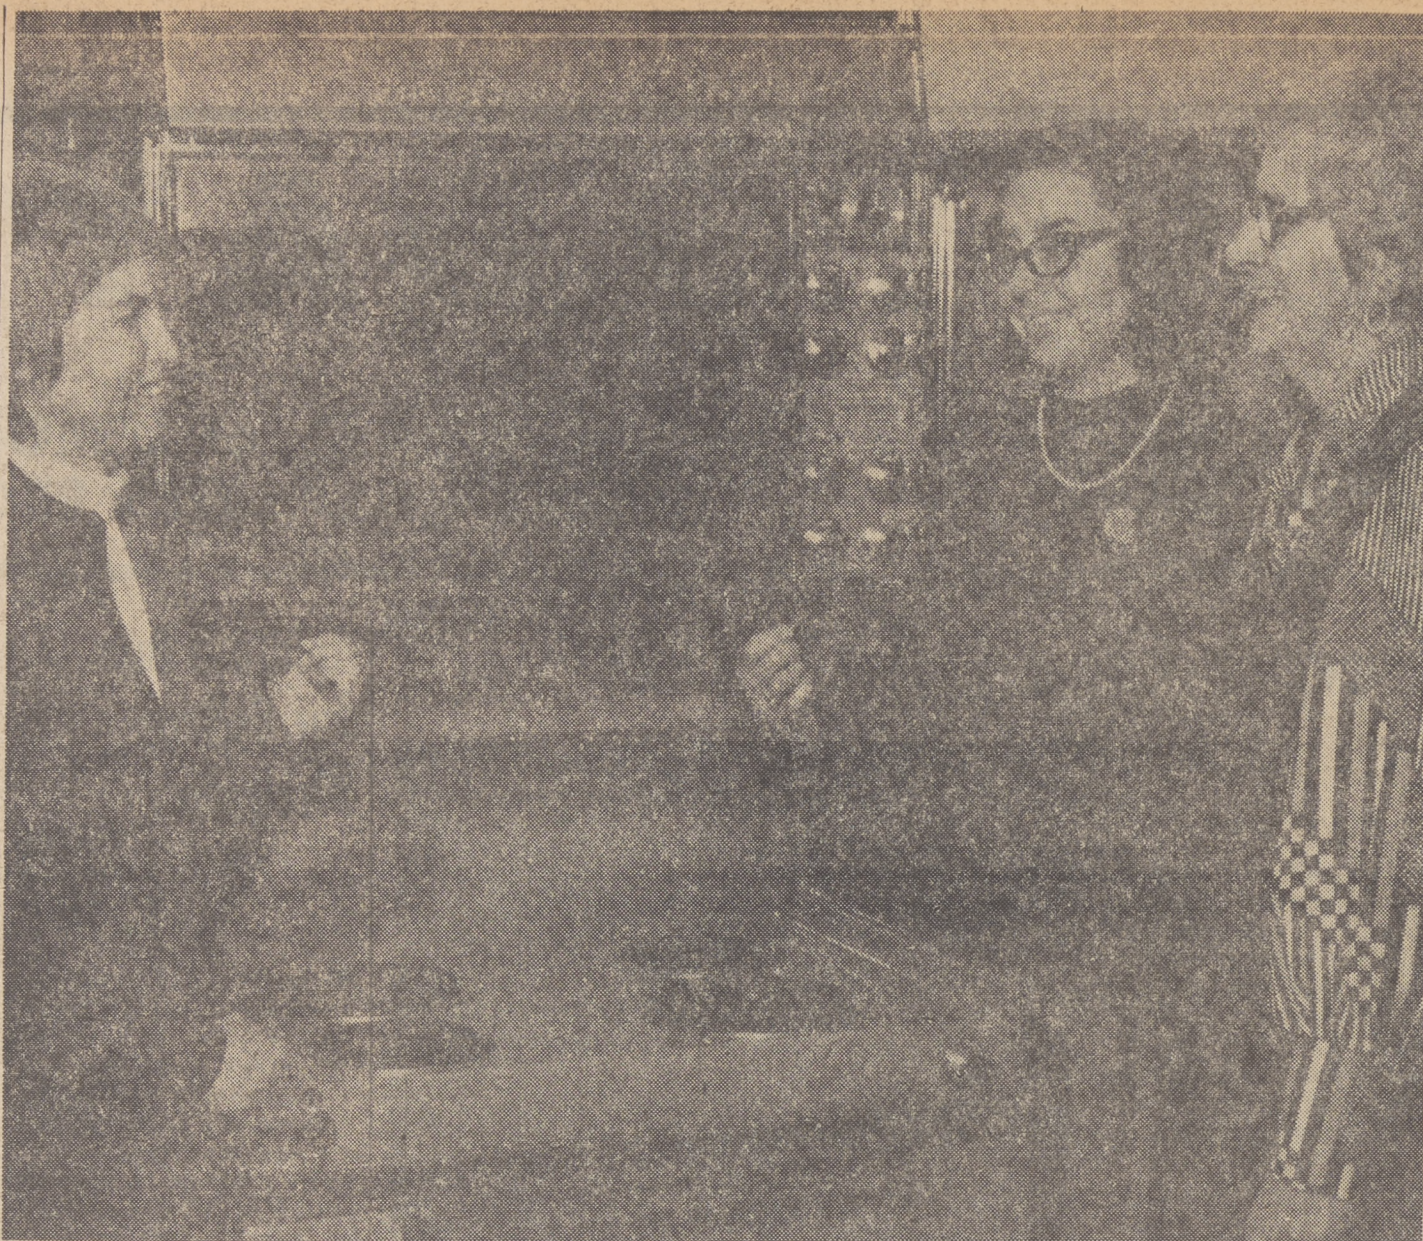

The fired Matadors came bouncing back on Friday night at Santana, blowing the host team out of the gym in the second quarter and enlarging the margin during the final periods.

After an opening period in which both teams managed but 13 tallies, Mt. Miguel put up a mean defense that allowed the team to outscore Santana by a 25-4 count as halftime saved the Sultans from further embarrassment.

The second half was filled with substitutes, but the Matadors still added five points in each of the last two quarters to their lead until the buzzer mercifully ended the slaughter, 78-49.

The game marked the return of Mark Dobransky to his style of last season. The Matador forward netted 25 points and 22 rebounds to lead all players.

Tomorrow night, Mt. Miguel ends the first half of the season at El Cajon, where the Spring Valley team is the favorite.

Mt. Miguel's wrestling team, which failed miserably at Monte Vista two weeks ago, last week bounced back to trounce Santana, 34-16.

Three Way Tie In Soccer Loop

A pair of surprise outcomes resulted in a three-way tie for second place last week in Division IV of the Suburban Soccer League.

At the beginning of last week's action, the Rascals were in first place with 18 points, followed by the Rippers with 15, the Cues with 14, and the Pros with 13.

The Cues took on the league leaders and managed a 1-1 tie, adding a point for each team in the standings. The Pros then upended the Rippers, giving the Pros an added two points in the standings.

The results of those games vaulted the Pros from fourth place into the second place tie, enabled the Cues to move into the tie from third place, and dipped the Rippers from second place all alone into the tie.

In other Division IV games, the Chargers whipped the Playboys, 2-0 to retain fifth place, the Colts held onto sixth place by knocking off the Monarchs, 2-1, and the Braves tied with the Marauders, 3-3, to move out of last place.

In Division III games, the standings remained the same, but the race for second place was tightened up when the Roadrunners upset the Lions, 7-2.

The Lions, who were two points out of first place and four points ahead of the third place Hawks, fell to four points behind the league leading Atlas United team and just two points ahead of the Hawks.

The Roadrunners, five points out of second place, inched to within three points.

In other games, Atlas United blanked the Celtics, 3-0, the Royals upset the Continentals, 1-0, the Hawks whipped the Raiders, 4-2, and the Razorbacks shutout the Rangers, 2-0.

In Division II, Sparta beat the Rebels, 7-0, to move to within two points of the league leading Kings.

Avondale Elementary School's Father and Son Banquet is set for January 30, at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium. The event is co-sponsored by the school's Student Council and the Parent-Teacher Association.

Mike Cerda, Student Council advisor, said the program will feature a talk by Dave Campbell, San Diego Padre infielder. Bob Chandler, of the Padre office staff, will show films of the World Series.

A PTA committee, Mrs. Vernon Schoore, chairman, is providing dessert and helping with arrangements.

Cerda said the event not only provides an activity for fathers and sons but also gives boys an opportunity to plan and conduct a major school event.

Tickets, which are available at the school office, are $2 for fathers and $1.60 for boys. A ham and beef dinner is planned.

Golden Avenue

A program on "Family Living Curriculum" will be sponsored by the Golden Avenue

Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association at its meeting tonight at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

All parents with children in elementary school in the Lemon Grove School District are invited to attend the showing of a series of short films. A panel will be present to answer questions parents may have about the films or the curriculum used at the fourth, fifth and sixth grade levels throughout the district.

The panel, moderated by Mrs. Ilse Hanning, Golden Avenue Principal, includes James Justeson, Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction; Mrs. Cathy Potter, R.N., School District Nurse; and a local physician.

Mrs. Rita Taylor, Program Chairman, said that parents are requested not to bring children to the meeting. Child care will be provided.

A short business meeting will precede the program including selection of a nominating committee for the 1973-74 PTA officers, according to Mrs. Marilyn Linn, PTA President.

Vista La Mesa

A patriotic musical program entitled "It's A Grand Old Flag" will be presented by Vista La Mesa students at the Valley Grove PTA Council Founders Day Luncheon Tuesday at 12:15 p.m. at the Lemon Grove Lutheran Church.

Fourth, fifth and sixth grade students will participate in the presentation under the direction of Miss Jo Wittrock, VLM fifth-sixth grade teacher. The accompanist is VLM sixth grade student Debbie Morgan. The narrators are students Carl Vetter, Tom Morris, Doug Morgan, Mike Owens, Robin Reichert and Barbara Wyatt.

The program tells the story of our country with flags and music. Some of the songs that will be heard are "Riflemen of Bennington," "America My Home," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and "You're a Grand Old Flag."

S.V. Elementary

"Dad's Sport Night" was held in conjunction with the January meeting of the Spring Valley Elementary School PTA, according to vice president Martha Humphries, who presided over the meeting.

Included in the program, which was enjoyed by moms in the group as well as dads, Mrs. Humphries said, was a Charger highlights film and a karate demonstration by Don Smith and Mike Stanger.

During the business meeting, a nominating committee was selected to nominate candidates for next year's officers.

Rotary, Bruins, Celtics Grab Top Hoop Spots

Spring Valley Recreation Department basketball last week saw standings in all three leagues solidify, with Rotary, the Celtics, and the Bruins all taking over sole possession of first place in their leagues.

Rotary won a pair of games, including one over previously undefeated Kiwanis to move out in front in the A league. Rotary beat Kiwanis, 34-30, and knocked off the Trotters, 69-55.

Kiwanis fell into third place behind Coastal Rigging, a team that won its only game on the week, 59-44 over SV Recreation. Rigging has played only two games on the season, and so is behind Rotary, which has played four games. Both teams are unbeaten.

In other games, Kiwanis whipped the Lions, 45-28, and the Lions beat Recreation, 64-47.

In the B league, only two games were played as the Knicks defeated the Lakers, 47-25, and the Celtics knocked off the Hawks, 40-29.

The victory for the Celtics moved the team out in front of the Hawks and the idle Roadrunners. All three teams were tied for first last week.

The win for the Knicks was the team's first, after dropping a pair of close ones last week.

In the C league, it was the Bruins winning a pair of games to move into the top spot all alone ahead of the Conquistadors, a team that lost its only game of the week.

The Bruins bombed the Bulls, 32-15, and seized the Pistons, 28-8.

In other games, the Green Gremlins beat the Conquistadors, 24-22, the Pistons beat the Green Gremlins, 16-14, and the Warriors knocked off the Bulls, 16-14.

Top scorers on the week were Arturo Spaan, 29 points in a victory for Rotary in the A league, Mike Ramirez, 25 points in a victory for the Celtics in the B league, and Darryl Keough, 16 points for the Bruins in a C league victory.

Monarchs Trump Braves, Fall To League Leaders

Monte Vista High School split a pair of hoop games last week to remain tied with Mount Miguel for third place in the Grossmont League.

The Monarchs looked sharp on Tuesday when they ripped the El Cajon Braves, 60-36.

The Monte Vistans never trailed in that contest after things got underway in a feeble first period in which neither team could get untracked.

The local team manged a bit better, taking a 13-8 lead into the second period, which was even less exciting from a scoring standpoint. Nevertheless, the Monarchs managed to enlarge their lead by three points.

In the third period, the Spring Valley cagers blew the Braves out of the gymnasium and took a whopping 20-point advantage into the final stanza.

On Friday, the Monte Vista winning streak was stopped at one game when the local team hosted the Helix Highlanders, unbeaten league favorites.

Again, the first half got off slow, but this time it was Helix taking a five point advantage into the second period, where the Highlanders enlarged it to seven by halftime.

Monte Vista stayed within striking range through the third quarter and trailed by eight points going into the last period.

At that point, Helix employed slow-down tactics to protect the slim lead, which at times was whittled down to as low as five points.

Monte Vista sustained its excellent zone defense and picked up several turnovers despite the Highlander tactics, but the Monarchs shooting went stale to end all hopes of a rally.

When the final buzzer sounded, it was Helix, 56-49.

Tomorrow night's action will see Monte Vista at Santana, a must win situation for the Monarchs, who are battling for contention for a CIF playoff spot.

Russian Champs OK S.D. Indoor Games

International competition is the spice of any track meet and the San Diego Indoor Games assured itself of one of the top international fields for the seventh annual event when it was announced that four top Russian Olympians will compete in the Games set for February 17 in the San Diego Sports Arena.

The Russian athletes are Galery Borzov, Yuri Tarmak, Yevgeniy Arzhanov and Lyudmila Bragina. Borzov is the Olympic 100 and 200 meter champion. He won the 100 in 10.1 and the 200 in an eased up 20.0. He won the 200 by two yards over Larry Black of the United States. Borzov is the first man since Bobby Morrow of Texas in 1956 to win gold medals in both sprints in the Olympics and Morrow was the first since Jesse Owens to win both sprints.

The 23 year old Borzov is the defending champion in the 60 yard dash in the Indoor Games, beat Jean-Louis Ravelomanantsoa in a controversial race.

Tarmak was the gold medalist in the Olympic high jump. The 6-4 Russian won the event with a jump of 7-3 3/4. His best mark ever is 7-4 1/2. The only American to jump higher than Tarmak is world record holder Pat Matzendorf. Matzendorf holds the world record at 7-6 3/4.

Arzhanov was the silver medalist in the Olympics in the 800 meters. He was the No. 1 rated man in the 800 meters going into the Olympics, but was beaten by Dave Wottle of the United States by 3/100ths of a second. Arzhanov held a five yard lead over Wottle down the final stretch.

Bragina won the women's 1-500 meters in the Olympics and is the women's world record holder in the event with a time of 4:01.4.

Confirmation on the Russians came from Ollan Cassall, Executive Secretary of the National AAU and was confirmed by San Diego Indoor Games Meet Director Tony Sucoe.

The Russians join the already announced field of world indoor shot put record holder Al Feuerbach, Olympic silver medalist in the shot George Woods, pending world indoor record holder in the pole vault Steve Smith, Olympic long jump champion Randy Williams, Olympic bronze medalist in the long jump Arnie Robinson and NCAA high hurdle champion Randy Williams.

Lee Signs 1973 Contract Padres Lone .300 Hitter

Leron Lee, who last season battled back from two beanings to hit .300, has signed his 1973 Padre contract, it was announced by Peter Bavasi, vice president and general manager.

Lee became the second Padre player to have a .300 season. Clarence Gaston's .318 in 1970 was the first.

The stocky but quick outfielder gave the Padres strong left-hand hitting sock with a dozen homers and 23 doubles. His seven triples were a San Diego high.

Lee, 24, was hitting .317 when hit on the head by a pitched ball on July 10 in Montreal. The next night he suffered a fractured finger when moving away from another finger heading for his head.

Lee was sidelined for more than six weeks and finally returned to the lineup on Aug. 23.

Chargers Acquire QB John Unitas

San Diego Chargers top brass was sorely missed Monday at Sportscasters/Sports-writers regular Monday meeting. A flock of questions would have been shoved at them.

The most urgent: Now that you have acquired title quarterback Johnny Unitas, what next?

Johnny, 39 years, $115,000 annual salary, a legend in his time with 25 years of accurate hurling, has been acquired by the Chargers from the Colts for a reported $150,000 in cash.

The estimable John Hadl, with an accuracy exceeded by Unitas only in years of play, is six years younger than Unitas.

At the time of the announcement it was not certain that Unitas would report to the Chargers.

But later this week, a Chargers spokesman said that Unitas would report and that he had said he was ready to play the 1973 season with the Chargers.

Optimists Fall In La Mesa Hoop League

Jim's U-Rent had no trouble, but La Mesa Optimists were knocked from the lead in the La Mesa Recreation basketball program's A league standings last week.

Jim's, opening the season in first place of Division II, won two games last week to continue in that position, a game better than second place Rotary.

Optimists, tied for the Division I lead last week, dropped a pair of games to slip into third place behind last week's co-leader American Legion Post 282 and new co-leader La Mesa Lions.

Post 282 lost one of its two contests while the Lions swept a pair of games, knotting the teams for the top spot.

Division I action saw the Lions over Scotty's Shell, 57-56, Post 282 over Optimists, 61-42, La Mesa Lumber over Optimists, 54-40, and Lions over Post 282, 56-50.

In Division II it was Jim's beating Kiwanis, 60-14, and Recreation, 46-22, Kings Engraving over Recreation, 45-40, and Rotary over Engraving, 48-42.

In the C league, the Aztecs won twice to take over sole possession of first place.

FAVORITE — Tall and able George Archer, who won the Andy Williams San Diego Open two years ago, returns next month to take another shot at the title. Archer, who last year sat out the tournament with the flu, is regarded as one of the best putters on the pro tour.

Archer Seeks Repeat Of AWSDO Title

SAN DIEGO — Unable to defend his title last year when the flu bug bit him, 1971 champion George Archer returns a year later as a possible favorite to win the sixth annual Andy Williams San Diego Open golf tournament Feb. 15-18 at Torrey Pines.

Acher, tallest golfer on the tour at 6-6 and generally rated the best putter, set the present tournament record of 272 in winning the 1971 AWSDO by three strokes over Dave Eichelberger.

It is Archer's record on the tour over the past two years, however, that makes him a good bet to be the first repeater in the AWSDO. In 1971 he finished fourth behind Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer with $147,769 in winnings. Last year only Nicklaus and Trevino topped his total of $145,027.

Foreman Wins Title Easily Norton-Ali Fight Seen Here

Few among the sports fraternity were giving or getting 3 1/2-1 on Joe Frazier prior to the closed circuit telecast of the Frazier-Foreman fight at the Arena Monday night.

Mostly it was whether the fight would go 15 rounds — yes or no, even money.

Then George Foreman, the Olympics heavyweight winner (Mexico City, 1968) who waved the American flag from the ring, knocked Joe Frazier down six times and stopped him in 1:35 of the second round before 36,000 fans in Jamaica. 3,312 people paid $8-$10 to see the fight at the Arena. The telecast picture was big but fuzzy.

Lee Fruin, a young (31 years) investor who said he "broke about even" on the Monday night fight, called a press conference immediately after the fight and announced plans for a fight between San Diego heavyweight Ken Norton and former heavyweight champion Muhammad Ali on March 31. He also announced that the fight, originally planned for the Stadium, would be held at the Arena with tickets scaled $100-$10. The arena can seat 16,000 people for boxing.

Fight fans, it is thought, will come alive again with a "dream fight" somewhere on the horizon, between "flag waving good guy" George Foreman and "draft dodging, black supremacist Muhammad Ali as the heavy."

Before the fight, San Diego's State Champion heavyweight Jack O'Halloran told this reporter, confidentially, that his suspension would be lifted this week. He was handed a six-months suspension for failing to attend a fight with Ken Norton on an Ali fight card at Stateline. M.G.

Local Drivers Gear For $100,000 Desert Classic

Call it the Mint 400, the Sahara 400, or the Del Webb Desert Rallye. Or call it, like the men who participate in it, the 'Vegas Run.

At any rate, it is among the most jarring, rugged and tiring 400 miles that a two or four-wheeled vehicle can travel, and over 400 machine will tackle it March 19 and 20.

The desert classic, sponsored by Del Webb's Mint Hotel and Casino, is rated with the Baja 500 and the Mexican 1000 in the "big leagues" of off road racing.

Participants, which will include defending Baja 500 champion Billy Silverthorn, of Lemon Grove, and off-road regular Larry Ward, also of Lemon Grove, will be shooting for $100,000 in prize money.

Silverthorn, service manager at Lemon Grove Honda, will be competing on a Honda motorcycle with special equipment. Silverthorn came from relative unknown status last year to claim the Baja 500 title, but had bad luck in the Mexican 1000 later in the year. He'll be rebounding with a well-tuned machine for the 'Vegas Run.

Larry Ward, will co-pilot a four-wheeler with Bert Junker, of San Diego. Ward, who has been involved as a contender in off-road runs for many years, was among the early leaders in both the Baja and Mexican runs last year, but ran into problems.

A third Lemon Grove team consisting of Mariano Alesi and Johnny Johnson signed up this week.

Technical inspection for the 'Vegas Run will be March 18, with motorcyclists to start on the 200-mile course the following day.

The four-wheelers will get into action March 20. A victory and awards banquet for cyclists will be March 20, with a similar affair March 21 for the four-wheel drivers.

The 200-mile course, over which participants make two trips, has yet to be set, although race officials indicate that it will be marked in time for practice runs next month.

Entries will be accepted right up to inspection time and can be obtained via mail from racing headquarters, P.O. Box 2160, Las Vegas.

Madigan Wins Contest

Bill Madigan, of Lemon Grove, claimed first prize in the high school division of an art contest held at the La Mesa Woman's Club last week.

The art show, under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Conn, was sponsored by all 20 clubs in Southern District 26, California Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Farewell Dinner For State's Don Coryell

Don Coryell, who resigned last week as head football coach at San Diego State University to take the head coaching job with the St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League, will be honored tonight at a farewell testimonial dinner.

It will be held in the Convention Center of Town and Country Hotel. No host cocktails will be at 6 p.m. with dinner at 7. The dinner is sponsored by the San Diego State Boosters Assn. Tickets are $6.50.

In St. Louis, Coryell will succeed Bob Holloway as coach of the Cardinals. St. Louis was 4-9-1 this season for the second year in a row.

In his 12 years at San Diego State, Coryell compiled a 104-18-2 record, including perfect seasons in 1966 (11-0) and 1969 (11-0). His 1968 team was 9-0-1, the 1967 team was 10-1 as was the 1972 club.

Coryell was named the NCAA District Eight College Division Coach of the Year four times (1963-66-67-68). The Aztecs have also been honored, being selected as the No. 1 College Division team in the country in 1966 and 1967 by both wire services and tops by UPI in 1968.

In 1969 the Aztecs were promoted to University Division status and finished in a tie for 18th with Purdue on the final UPI balloting. This season, UPI rated the Aztecs 20th on its final poll.

Coryell came to State in 1961 after serving a year at USC as an assistant. Prior to that he was head coach at Whittier where he succeeded George Allen, now head coach of the Washington Redskins.

Dr. Kenneth Karr, director of athletics at State said that a selection committee would be appointed to screen all applicants, including current assistants.

"We realize that we must act quickly, but we want to get the right man," Karr said. Coryell announced his resignation at a press conference in St. Louis last week.

Interestingly, the St. Louis Cardinals open the NFL exhibition season at San Diego Stadium in August against the Chargers.

NEW RESTAURANT — Lemon Grove's newest Mexican restaurant, "Los Cazadores", at 7836 Broadway, opened last week. The shop, owned and operated by Francis Partida, of San Diego, will feature Mexican food in a family setting, she said. In photo, Mrs. Partida shows employees

Rosi Solymosi and Amelia Samaniego how to get tortillas cooked "just right". Mrs. Partida has been in the food service business since 1955. She selected Lemon Grove as her location, she said, because it "is a beautiful town and the people are very nice."

Royal Inns Opens Tijuana Facility

A luxurious new Royal Inn, with 200 rooms, convention center, discotheque, and other features, opened Saturday in Tijuana.

Its 10 floors make it the first high-rise in the border city of 400,000 residents. Built for $3.2 million, Royal Inn de Tijuana is the second in a projected chain of Royal Inns to be constructed throughout Mexico. The first, a 100-room hotel on the beach at Ensenada, was opened in 1969.

Royal Inn de Tijuana is on Agua Caliente blvd. near the race track and adjacent to the Tijuana Golf Course just east of downtown Tijuana. Construction was completed in 10 months.

Extensive offstreet parking is provided. Room decor resembles that of Royal Inns in the U. S. All 200 rooms are air-conditioned and have color television. 36 are suites with built-in bars.

The lobby is purely Mexican, especially a large concrete casting of a Mayan face. The dining room is in Mexican decor. Four hundred persons can be seated for banquets. Employees are well-

Planting Session Due For Garden Section

Members of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club garden section will hold a planting session meeting and birthday party February 6 at 1:30 p.m. at the clubhouse, 2810 Main st., Lemon Grove, according to section chairman Mrs. C. B. Goldthorpe.

Included in the day's activities will be the planting of poppy seeds, which will be supplied by the club. Each member attending the session will bring a small plant or bulb to exchange in keeping with the "birthday party" theme, Mrs. Goldthorpe said.

The garden section, which meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month, is open to all members of the Woman's Club.

Housing And Jobs Sought For Students

An acute housing shortage for students attending Grossmont College is continuing because of last fall's record-breaking enrollment. The shortage is expected to continue during the spring semester and will effect students from outlying parts of the college district who want to live and work closer to the college, as well as the local students who want to maintain their own residences.

Assistant to the Dean of Student Activities, Mrs. Terry Volz, urges anyone having houses, apartments or rooms available with or without kitchen privileges and living accommodations they wish to exchange for housework, babysitting or gardening, to call the Student Activities Office at the college, 465-1700, Ext. 267 during normal business hours. Information on the housing offered will be accepted and compiled for interested students to inspect.

"Grossmont College assumes no liability for off-campus housing either to the students or to the landlords," Mrs. Volz said.

"The Student Activities Office serves only as an agency for collecting housing information as a service to their students and to the community," she said.

Last in Cinema Series on Tap

The Scandinavian Cinema series presented by Grossmont College's Office of Community Services, will feature "Loving Couples" as the last film in the popular series. "Loving Couples" will be screened at 8 p.m. January 31, in the Fine Arts Recital Hall.

In spite of the hint of romance in the title, "Loving Couples" is primarily a social drama and a "giant" step for women's lib that features some outstanding moments of farce and satire.

Speech instructor Jay Richen will moderate a panel discussing films, morals and censorship values following the film.

Scandinavian Cinema is an adult education program with admission restricted to those over 18 years of age. The price of admission is 75 cents.

Astronomy Lectures On Tap At College

One of the most popular community services programs at Southwestern College are the planetarium lectures which are presented free of charge to the public each Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Reservations are suggested due to the limited seating in the planetarium. The lectures are approximately 30 minutes in length with a question/answer period following. Weather permitting, the observatory is open for viewing the "real" sky with a variety of telescopes.

The lecture for this month is "Cosmic Creation and Stellar Evolution". Modern astronomy and cosmology will be given the floor in order to present the argument for the nature of the birth of the universe. The origin of the expanding universe, chemical elements and the life history of the sun and other stars will be illustrated.

In March the lecture is titled "Life In The Universe". This lecture will explore the chance that life could exist elsewhere in the universe other than earth. The contemporary biological picture of living matter will be presented in order to discuss the astronomical conditions necessary for the evolution of other biologically active planets and thus other civilizations.

April's lecture will be "The Birth of the Planets" and will discuss Mars, the god of War and Venus the goddess of Love, the two most important planetary influences on man both in astrology and poetry. Data and photographs from recent space probes to Mars and Venus will be reviewed in the light of theories which have been proposed to explain the origin of the planets.

The approval was announced by Gordon C. Luce, president and chief executive officer, who noted it will be the Association's second office in the East County; the 14th in the County and the 20th in the state.

San Diego Federal's first East County office, located at the Grossmont Shopping Center in La Mesa, opened in 1962 and moved to larger quarters in 1970.

Founded in 1885, San Diego Federal now has assets in excess of $600 million and is California's oldest federal savings and loan association.

Frankenstein To Be Fine Arts Lecturer

The illustrated lecture will offer a book at the art of William M. Harnett, American trompe l'oeil painter. A work by this 19th century still life artist, "Merganser Duck," has recently been acquired by the Fine Arts Society.

Lectures are held in the James S. Copley Auditorium and reservations are limited. Reservations will be accepted until February 3.

Rule Change Adopted

The California State Park and Recreation Commission recently approved a change in park system regulations which would prohibit dogs on state beaches, except where otherwise posted.

The rules previously allowed dogs on state beaches, except where otherwise posted. The revisions will soon be in effect.

Regulations require that dogs be kept on a leash and that they not be permitted on the beach itself, although they are permitted in campground

Monte Vista Teacher Runs for State Senate

A Monte Vista high school history teacher Ivan R. Huyser, announced last week that he will run for the 38th District State Senate seat vacated by U. S. Congressman Clair Burgener.

He claimed that the Republican County Central Committee had endorsed John Stull, an announced candidate for the Senate seat, before the registrar of voters had closed the period for filing declarations of candidacy.

He said that the Republican hierarchy was "flirting with the democratic processes" by "annointing John Stull."

Huyser admitted that his position on "many issues are very similar (to Stull's)" but that he takes a more moderate approach.

Tax relief, campaign disclosure, no fault insurance, school construction, quality of life, stiffer penalties for drug pushers and preservation of the democratic processes are tenets of his platform, he said.

He saw no conflict in his recent service for a year as community relations representative for Associated General Contractors and his stated need for immediate school construction.

He charged that a letter from State Senator John Harmer, chairman of the Republican caucus to Henry Boney, caused Boney to decide not to run against John Stull. He claimed he read the letter but rejected revealing the contents on the basis that "it is private."

Boney announced his decision not to make the race earlier this year. He had a survey made which he said indicated he could win but it would be costly. He served eight years as a county supervisor and did not seek reelection.

Boney said that the Harmer letter was just one of a number of reasons he decided not to run. A privately paid survey showed he could win but the effort would be disruptive to growing GOP state power, he said.

Huyser, a life member Republican, whose nickname is Ike, said his slogan "I like Ike" would not be disparaging to the memory of Dwight Eisenhower. Nor did he see his campaign as disruptive to GOP forces.

Huyser said he had "thousands of supporters" mostly in the north part of the county who would work for his election. He said a teachers' bloc supporting him is not likely.

The Huyseres live in El Cajon.

He returns to history teaching at Monte Vista Feb. 5.

Subscription List Grows

Still expressing a strong desire for the Lemon Grove Youth Center to re-open, a list of local residents said they would help pay its way.

Part of each subscription (50 cents) goes to the Center Assn. to pay obligations. One, Mrs. Donna Tirpak of Corona st., Lemon Grove, made an extra contribution.

This week's list:

Q's May Reach 4th Place Sunday

Look out fourth place, the Q's are coming.

At least that lofty position is possible if the Dallas Chaparrals accommodate the Q's by losing. They've got games Friday and Saturday before arriving in San Diego for a game Sunday night at 7:30 at Peterson gym on State campus.

If things fall into place it'll be the first time the Q's have been out of the cellar since mid-December. But they'll have to stop the Chap's vaunted forward Rich Jones.

With the Q's Steve Johnson on the move again, the team appears on the winning move again and the talent is spread enough that any man can be the key any night.

It's easier to get to the gym than most people think. Turn south on 55th st. from Montezuma and there's plenty of parking near the gym.

PTA Gets Luncheon

An unusual meeting greeted members of the Palm Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association last week when the group was served lunch in the school cafeteria.

The luncheon meeting — under the gavel of Mrs. Arville Smith — included an explanation of the school district's food services as well as nutritious hot rolls with the meal, which was prepared at the school.

Carol Costanza, from Grossmont College, was on hand at the meeting to offer a lecture on "Life, Love, Sex, and the Teenage Marriage."

Stock Earnings Noted

San Diego Gas & Electric Company last week reported earnings of 43 cents per share of common stock for the quarter ended December 31, 1972. In the comparable 1971 period, the company earned 32 cents a share.

HOMEcoming — Miss Lemon Grove, Barbara Kotnik, was on hand at College Grove Shopping Center Saturday to help the San Diego Gulls celebrate homecoming. Included in festivities were balloon rides for kiddies and Gull hockey sticks, pucks and two-for-one coupons for adults. Barbara was joined by several members of the Gulls team.

The team, meanwhile, get back to the business of playing hockey tonight when they meet the Denver Spurs at the Arena at 7:30 p.m. Saturday they meet the Seattle Totems at 8 p.m. Pre-game ceremonies Saturday includes presentation of an amateur hockey team in six age classifications. The team will represent the 400 youngsters of the S.D. American Hockey Assn. in naming the Gull of the Year. To be presented also is Mike Garcia, a 19-year old centerman who has been chosen to the Amateur Hockey All-American team.

Penthouse Jabberwocky Club Planned Atop Le Baron Hotel

San Diego's first exclusive key club will be opened this spring atop the Le Baron hotel on Hotel Circle.

The announcement was made at a "roofbreaking" last week, which was overseen by masters of ceremonies Mel Knoepf of teevee channel 8 and Bob Barker, a Hollywood money game show.

The new club's name is Jabberwocky. It is taken from Lewis Carroll's poem which confuses today's readers as much as it did "Alice in Wonderland" a century ago. Jabberwocky will have "snob appeal" necessary to the success of the swank penthouse club according to Kenneth R. Riley, president of the Le Baron chain of hotels. It will have a "Wonderland" motif, he said.

Admittance to the club is by membership or by being a current guest at the hotel. Charter annual memberships are $125 for men; $25 for women, and $350 for corporations. A goodly share of the cost is returned to the member in room rent.

The 8,500 square foot facility will cost a half million dollars, Riley said. It will boast a continental atmosphere, gourmet cuisine, an intimate cocktail lounge, and small private meeting and game rooms. Food and drink costs will be average hotel prices. Salomon Khoury has been named director of club operations.

Burgener Named To House Committee On Banking-Finance

Congressman Clair W. Burgener has been appointed to the prestigious House Committee on Banking and Currency.

This committee has jurisdiction over banks, savings and loan institutions, credit unions, private and public housing, mass transportation, international trade, small business and minority business loans, and consumer affairs.

"Housing has been of particular interest to me over many years. I am keenly interested in how the consumer will fare when he borrows money. Whether the loan is to finance a home, an automobile, or an appliance, the public needs a free enterprise financial system that is highly competitive operating under laws and regulations that assure that the borrower is informed of every single charge he will pay."

Appointment to the committee was highly sought after by freshman members. Burgener's background of ten years in the California Legislature, as well as his service as City Councilman and Vice Mayor of San Diego, were factors in his success in obtaining the assignment.

Meter System Seen For Route 94 Ramps

La Mesa, Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and El Cajon. During peak traffic hours of weekday mornings, freeway capacity is exceeded, resulting in stop-and-go traffic.

The proposed ramp-metering system will limit "input" from the 22 on-ramps between Interstate 8 and Interstate 5. The first phase of the metering system calls for installing necessary electronic equipment at a central location, plus necessary equipment for communicating with interchange locations along the freeway.

Estimated cost of this first phase of the project is $80,000.

Dr. Mel Crain Joins Race For 38th Dist. Senate Job

Dr. Mel Crain, a professor of political science at State College, who turned up 25 minutes late for the news conference on the campus at which he toils, told newsmen Friday that he had filed for the job of state senator in the 38th District — a post vacated by U. S. Congressman Clair Burgener earlier this year.

First to announce for the race was Assemblyman John Stull, who revealed his intentions in December.

Crain, 51, a former Central Intelligence Agency official and presently serving his third term as member of the Democratic County Central Committee this year as vice chairman, said he had expected a well-qualified candidate to merge whom he could support. None did. He filed Thursday and worked on his announcement up to press-conference time Friday.

He was an aide to former Gov. Pat Brown and former member of the executive council of the California Democratic Council.

He charged that John Stull's entry into the race is a "blatant attempt by the Governor (Reagan) to practice power politics . . . purportedly the Governor told the Assemblyman he must relinquish his power position in the Assembly and seek the seat in the 38th District in order to protect the Senate."

"... I think (it) insults the intelligence of the people of the 38th District and shows complete disdain for the people."

Rainfall Doubled Here

The rainfall total for the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area totals 8.93 inches for the season starting July 1. The total includes .58 of an inch on Friday followed by .01 on Sunday.

Rainfall days begin at 4 p.m.

Last year at the same time the total was 4.31 — about half of this year's.

ple residing in the 80th Assembly District."

He said Stull had a built-in resistance of 20,000 teachers in the county because of Stull's Teachers' Accountability Bill — a Bill that attaches the teacher's ability to the progress made by students.

He said the primary element of the campaign could cost as much as $30,000 but he expected to spend only $10,000.

In addition to Stull, Ivan (I Like Ike) Huyser, a Republican, Stuart Dingwall, American Independent Party, Miss Leslie Dork, a Socialist Activist Party member, Iris Sankey, an Escondido housewife and Leonard Thomas, both Democrats, are in the race.

Learning To Drive Is Teen Excitement

during the thrill of it all and the concentration on steering and speed control, all those small details like stop signs, turn signals, and which pedal operates the brake.

By the time the beginning driver has some sort of mastery over the machine and has gone through one set of nerves, Miss Brown said, he will then learn about freeway driving and parallel parking and go through another set of nerves.

"Once you learn parallel parking, it saves you hours of backing up," the student said. "But you've got to remember to look backwards, lest you exchange paint jobs with the car in back of you."

Another horror is freeway driving, when the car travels faster than the novice driver has ever gone before and must be carefully centered in its own lane.

"When entering the freeway," Miss Brown instructed, "try to fit evenly with traffic as quickly as you can. And once you are in, there's no turning back! If you decide that the exit you just passed is the one you wanted, you just can't go back."

The learning experience involved affords the student driver a look at the driving scene from another angle. Instead of dodging cars as a pedestrian, the teenager now has to dodge pedestrians as a driver.

"And you discover that the leading case of accidents is not two cars going after the same pedestrian," Miss Brown said.
